KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Rev. Dr. John F. Hoffmeyer

The Rev. Dr. John F. Hoffmeyer is Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, where he teaches in the areas of Ethics and Youth Ministry. Dr. Hoffmeyer grew up in the Virginia Synod as a member of St. Mark Lutheran Church in Luray. He pursued graduate studies in Theology and Philosophy in Germany and France, and received his Ph. D. from Boston College. A primary focus of his teaching and scholarship is Trinitarian theology. He is particularly interested in how Trinitarian theology can inform the life of Christian discipleship in North America consumer society. He is the co-founder of Theological Education with Youth, and regularly leads educational travel seminars to El Salvador. Before joining the seminary faculty he was a parish pastor in California.
