

CHAPTER 11

WILLS AND ESTATE PLANNING

Some of the most effective, wisest, and most faithful stewardship ever expressed may happen through wills and estate planning. A person is able to express very clearly to their loved ones and to others who the Lord of life has been for them. A will is the last expression of your stewardship of what has been entrusted to you.

There are so many fine places to go for helpful materials concerning the making of wills and financial planning. We list a few below:

The ELCA Foundation
8765 W. Higgins Road
Chicago, IL 60631
1-800-638-3522 (ext. 2970)

Aid Association for Lutherans (your local agent is a good place to begin)

Lutheran Brotherhood (your local agent is a good place to begin)

Professional financial advisors and lawyers in your congregation
