

Welcoming students from around the world

Quilts warm the hearts of international students

This year, 39 international students from 25 countries arrived at Roanoke College from all parts of the globe having traveled many miles. Since some come from areas with warm climates, it is somewhat of a shock to find that we can have very cold days and nights. The loving outreaching ministry of congregational quilting groups has provided beautiful handmade quilts for these international students.

Handmade quilts are warmly appreciated by international students at Roanoke College

Even those who come from areas where they are accustomed to the cold, do not travel with something as large as a quilt and are just as excited to receive such a gift. Scholarship and financial aid make it possible for many of these students to come to Roanoke College. Therefore, the gifts given to these purposes are eagerly received.

All funds raised through the United Lutheran Appeal go directly to scholarship and financial aid. Your gift is greatly needed and warmly appreciated, just as the quilts are.

ROANOKE COLLEGE

A People Approach

You can change lives

Agencies and institutions are great things. But in the end, they are simply conduits for the real business of change, working to better the circumstances of people.

The United Lutheran Appeal is a way you can contribute to nine Virginia Synod agencies and institutions that educate and minister to the needs of more than 100,000 people across the synod.

It is a contribution that can change a life. Among those served by these ministries are the sick, the aged, prisoners, families in trouble, college students, inner-city youth, candidates for the ministry, people in need of counseling, and many others. This is not simply a way you can nurture our very exceptional agencies. This is a way you can become the hands of Christ through acts of generosity and compassion.

These agencies will be strengthened through your generosity:

- Caroline Furnace Lutheran Camp & Retreat Center
- Chaplain Service of the Churches of Virginia
- Hungry Mother Lutheran Retreat Center
- Lutheran Council of Tidewater
- Lutheran Family Services of Virginia
- Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary
- The National Lutheran Home & Village
- Roanoke College
- Virginia Lutheran Homes
