Generosity Matters

In this time of physical distancing, it is important to remember that we are all connected as the Body of Christ. In this time when fear and uncertainty permeate our society, it is important to remember that as Christians, we people of the empty tomb and the risen Lord. We are people of hope.

We are all discovering new ways to be church together. We gather online for worship and study. We make phone calls and send cards. We pray. We sing. We share our gifts for the building up of the common good.

With your help, (Insert Church Name) will be the church in even if we aren't in the same physical place. Your willingness to invest your time, talents, and financial resources in being church together matters - your generosity matters!

Discovering Generosity in Scripture

Image 1 (see folder)

“The earth is the Lord’s and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it; for he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.” - Psalm 24:1-4

Image 2 (people pic from congregation)

“As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share,” - 1 Timothy 6:17-18

Image 3 (people pic from congregation)

“For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.” – Romans 12:4-5

Generosity Makes Ministry Happen

Insert generosity powerpoint/video/pictures showing ministry at congregation

- If you are doing a Zoom Bible Study, ask if you can take a screenshot of the meeting and post that picture.
- Put together a slide show with pictures of congregational ministries from last fall to point toward what will be happening
- If you send out cards, make phone calls, send devotions, take pictures of those items to post here to show people how we are being church in news ways

Your generosity makes ministry happen at (Cong Name)!

In this time of physical distancing, it is important to remember that we are all connected as the Body of Christ. In this time when fear and uncertainty permeates our society, it is important to remember that as Christians, we are people of the empty tomb and the risen Lord. We are people of hope.

We know that the next several months will be difficult. Measures needed to contain the spread of COVID-19 mean that jobs and livelihoods are at risk. Losses in the stock market mean that anxiety about retirement accounts is high. As a church, we are working to be good stewards of the gifts you have shared with (Insert Church Name) as we continue to share God's love to a frightened and hurting world.

Your willingness to generously share your time, your skills and your financial resources puts God's love into action.

As we discover new ways to undertake ministry over the next few months, the Council invites you to click the button below to learn why your generosity matters and to consider how you can support (Insert Church Name)'s ministry in these difficult times.
